

FUTURE CITIES CAMPBELLTOWN

Date: Friday 19 May

Address: The Cube, Campbelltown Catholic Club 20-22 Camden Road, Campbelltown NSW 2560

Arrival time: 8.45 am for a 9am start

2023 program

8.45 am	Registration and networking
9.00 am	Welcome to Country Aunty Glenda Chalker
9.10 am	Introduction Eamon Waterford CEO, Committee for Sydney
9.15 am	Campbelltown now Campbelltown is one of the fastest growing regions in Australia. Hear from Mayor George Greiss on the realities and opportunities of Campbelltown.
9.25 am	Minister's address The Hon. Paul Scully MP NSW Minister Planning and Public Spaces Q&A w/ James O'Doherty, State Political Editor, The Daily Telegraph
9.50 am	Report insights: Future Cities Campbelltown Jeremy Gill, Principal and Partner, SGS Economics and Planning presents a deep dive into the opportunities and ambitions across planning, mobility, economy, resilience, governance, and culture.
10.05 am  Moderator Angira Bharadwaj, The Daily Telegraph	Panel: Connecting Campbelltown Does the 30-minute city translate in a peri-urban context? Connecting the Campbelltown - Macarthur region to itself is a major challenge, and then there's the challenge of connecting the region to greater Sydney. What are the health, community and employment challenges a transport strategy needs to consider and solve for? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Dr George Greiss, Mayor, Campbelltown City Council</li><li>- Billie Sankovic, Western Parkland City Commissioner, Greater Cities Commission</li><li>- Grant Isedale, General Manager, Campbelltown Hospital</li><li>- Matthew McKibbin, Executive Director Planning for Places, Transport for NSW</li></ul>
10.40 am  Moderator Sam Kernaghan	Community resilience What makes a good city great? Campbelltown is at the forefront with it's work around community resilience. In this candid conversation we review what they learnt from Covid, how their resilience strategy has evolved with best-practice approaches to cross-cultural and first nations engagement, hazard risk and urban heat assessments – and their collaborative approach to solutions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Lindy Deitz, General Manager, Campbelltown City Council</li><li>- Mal Fruean, Chair, NSW Councils for Pacific Communities</li><li>- Prof Andy Marks, Director, Centre for Western Sydney</li></ul>
11.10 am	Coffee break

11.40am  2 x 6 mins	Bright ideas for a shared bright future Where is Campbelltown now? Where do we need to adapt to be where we need to be? This session dives into the hopes, aspirations and opportunities from the perspective of young people living, learning and working in Campbelltown. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Lidija Faamau, Western Sydney University first year of medicine student</li> <li>- Caitlin Reynolds, year 11 student</li> </ul>
11.55 am  Q&A  Moderator Eamon Waterford	Workforces of the future 62% of employed residents travel outside the LGA for work, yet the younger generations, digital natives, are increasingly looking for opportunities closer to home. What are the pathways for employment, education and future industries in the region? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Robert Parsonson, General Manager, Superior Training Centre, Ingleburn</li> <li>- Joanna Kubota, Executive Director, The Parks</li> <li>- Katie Knight, CEO, Investment NSW</li> <li>- Mark Samaha, Director Customer and Stakeholder Relations, TAFE NSW Western Sydney</li> <li>- John Szabo, Director - Strategic Partnerships/SME@UTS, University of Technology Sydney</li> </ul>
12.40 pm  Q&A Moderator Ehssan Veiszadeh	Panel discussion: Future in Focus South-West Sydney is already an incubator for our next generation of creative talent. It's a culturally diverse place, it has one of Sydney's highest indigenous populations, and it's also home to a standout Arts centre. What does the future look like for young creatives? What do we need to do to nurture the next crop of artist, and support a vibrant, 24-hour city? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- L-Fresh, Musician</li> <li>- Mouna Zaylah, Campbelltown Arts Centre</li> <li>- Becca Hatch, Musician</li> <li>- Michael Rodrigues, 24 Hour Economy Commissioner</li> </ul>
1.10 pm	Closing address Michael Rose Chair, Committee for Sydney
1.15 pm	Networking lunch
2.00 pm	Ends